Fear and Trembling Hope,
Silence and Foresight;
Death the Skeleton
And Time the Shadow.

— William Wordsworth

. . . Tomorrow let my sun his beams display,
Or in clouds hide them;
I have lived today . . .

— Abraham Cowley

Climb mountains while you may and sing life's song.
Start living every day
it won't be long Before you turn around and wonder where life's gone.

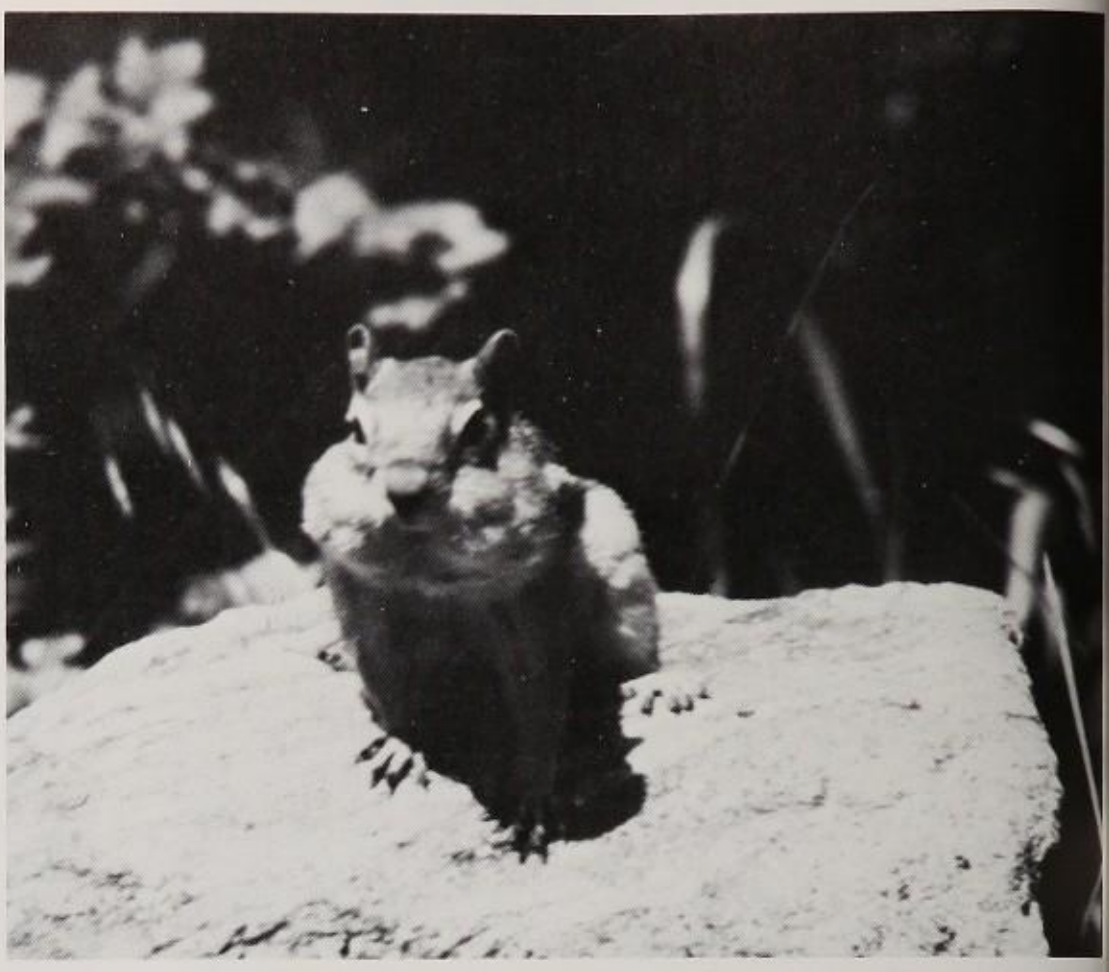
Diane Rutledge



There's a divinity
that shapes our ends,
Rough hew them how we will.

— William Shakespeare

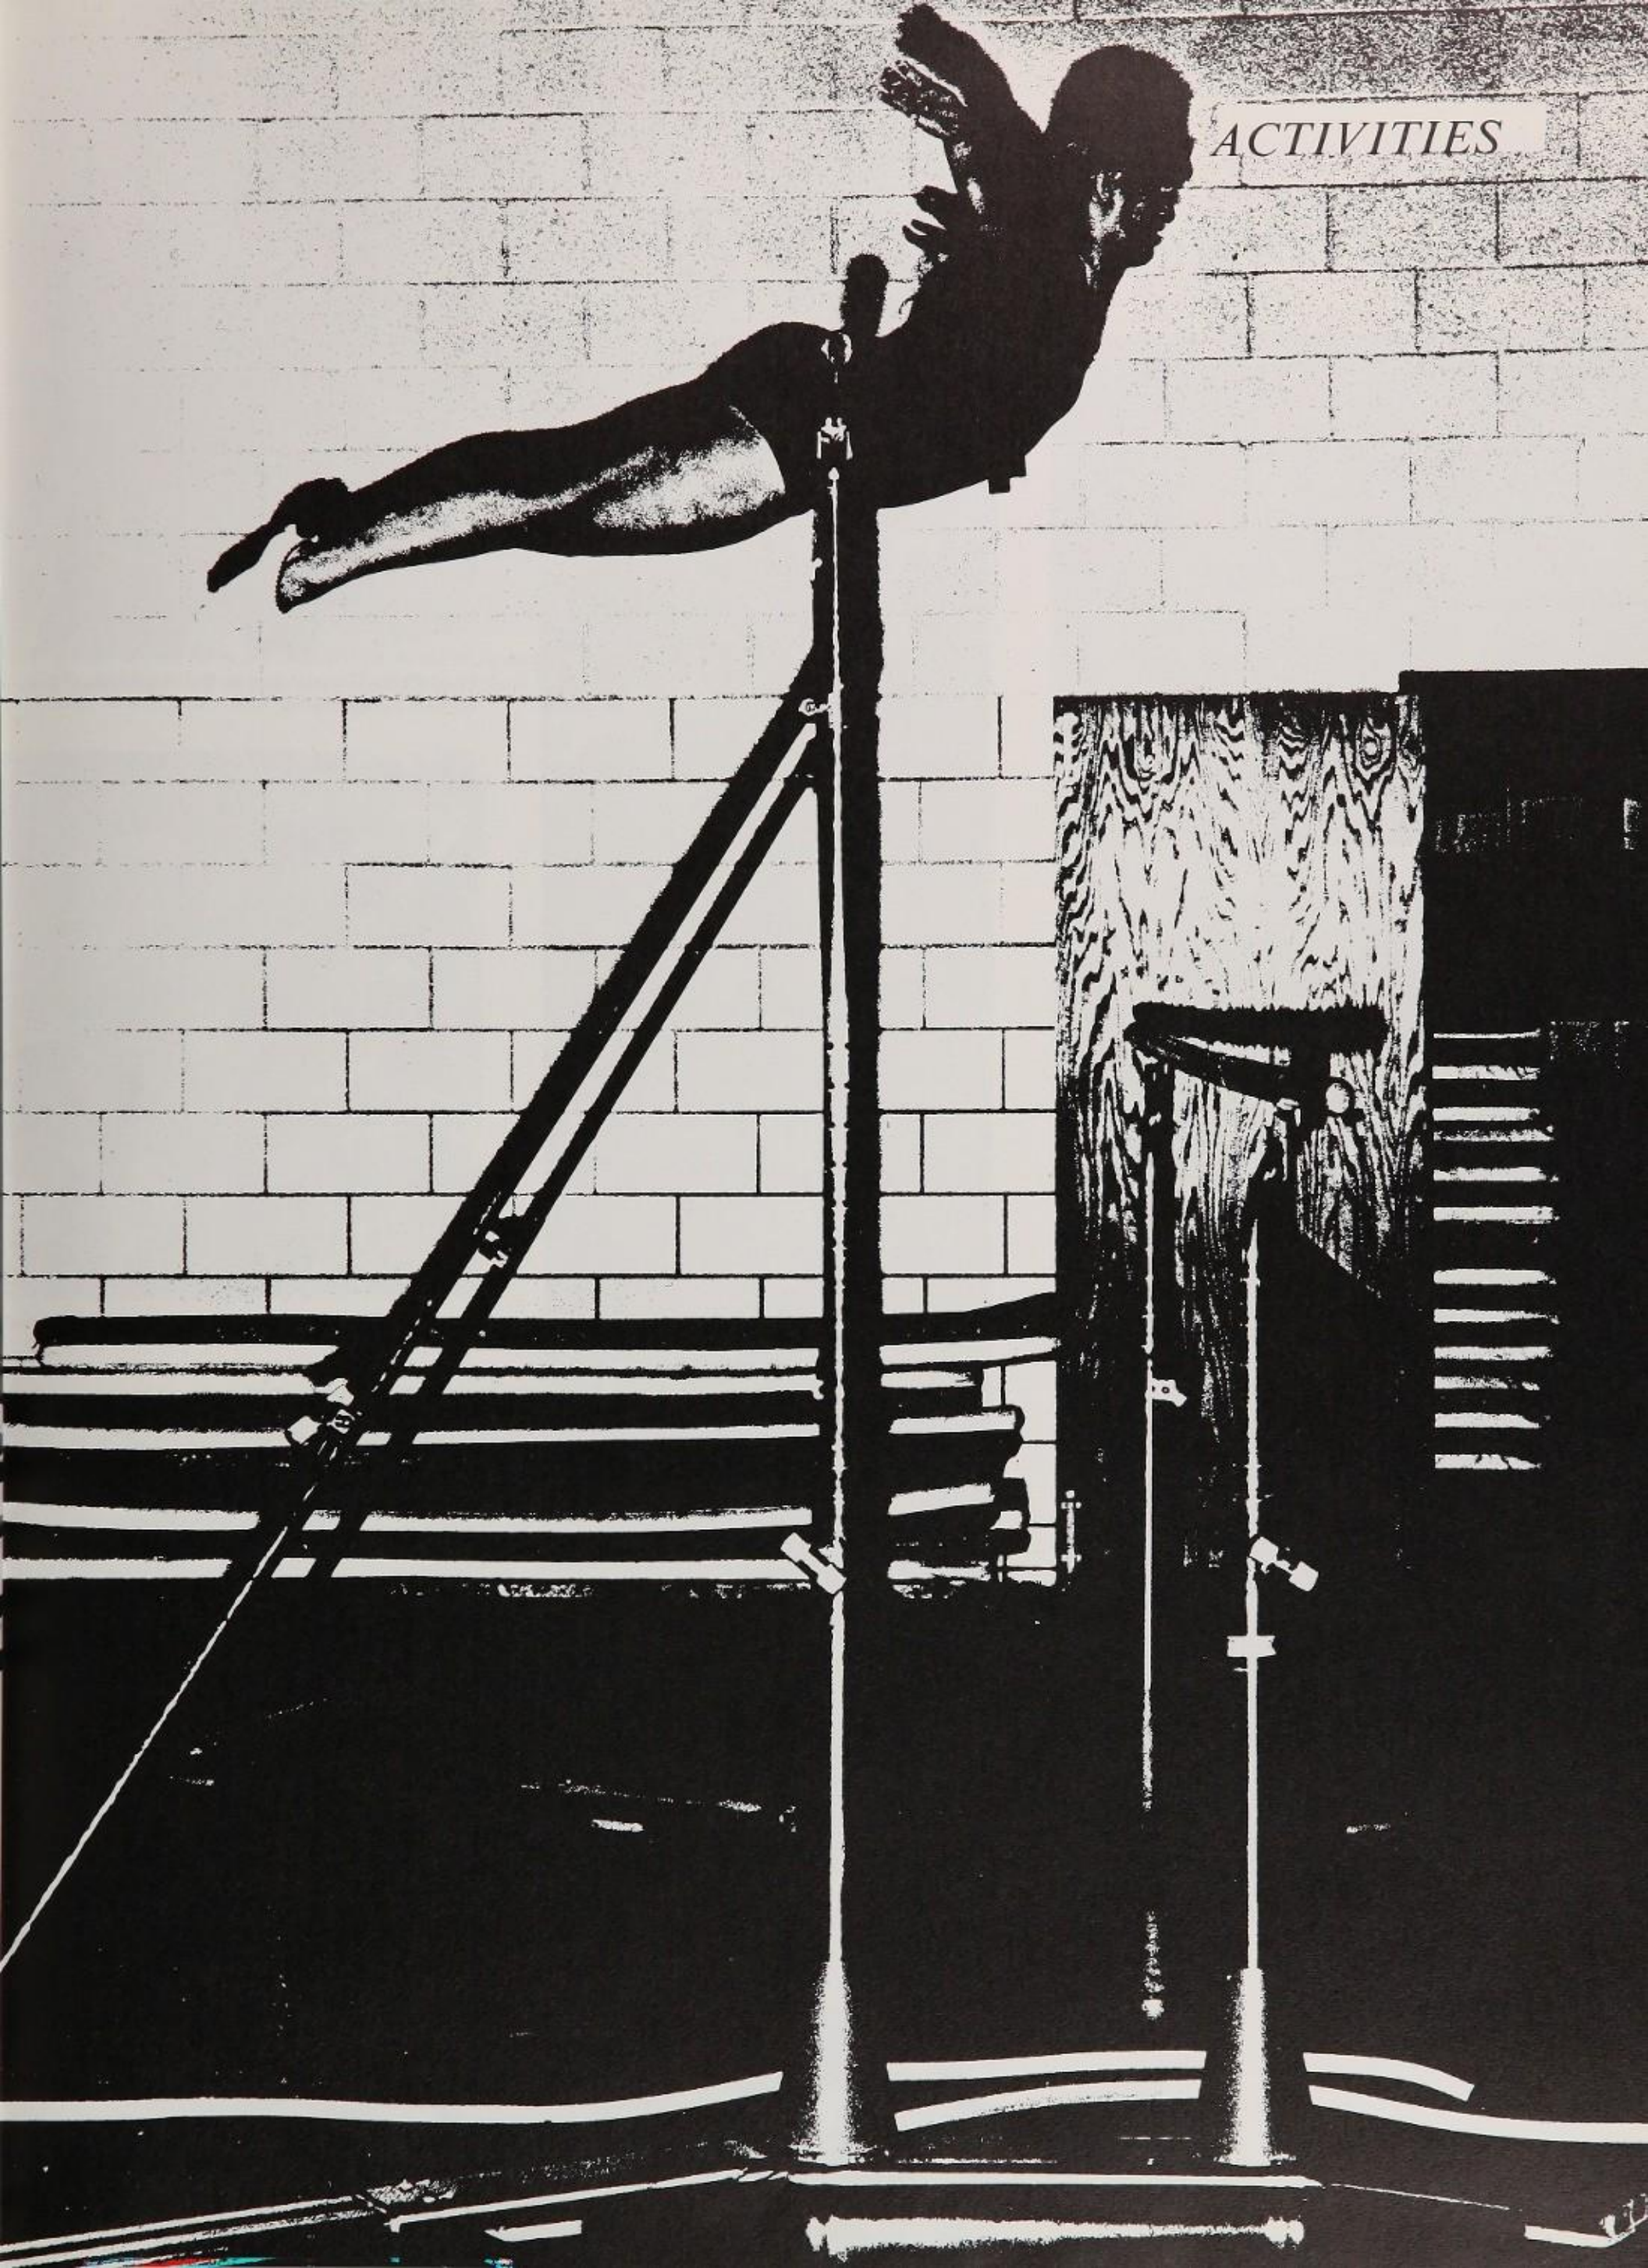
ACTIVITIES



Homecoming 1973

"Taxi!"

Panthers stream onto the field with the confidence that won them the game, 14-6 over the DeMatha Stags.

"So much for 'one size fits all' dunce hats!"

Carol Clarke is eaten alive by the cheerleaders' entry in the float contest.

Members of the Pep Band infect the crowd with their vivacity.

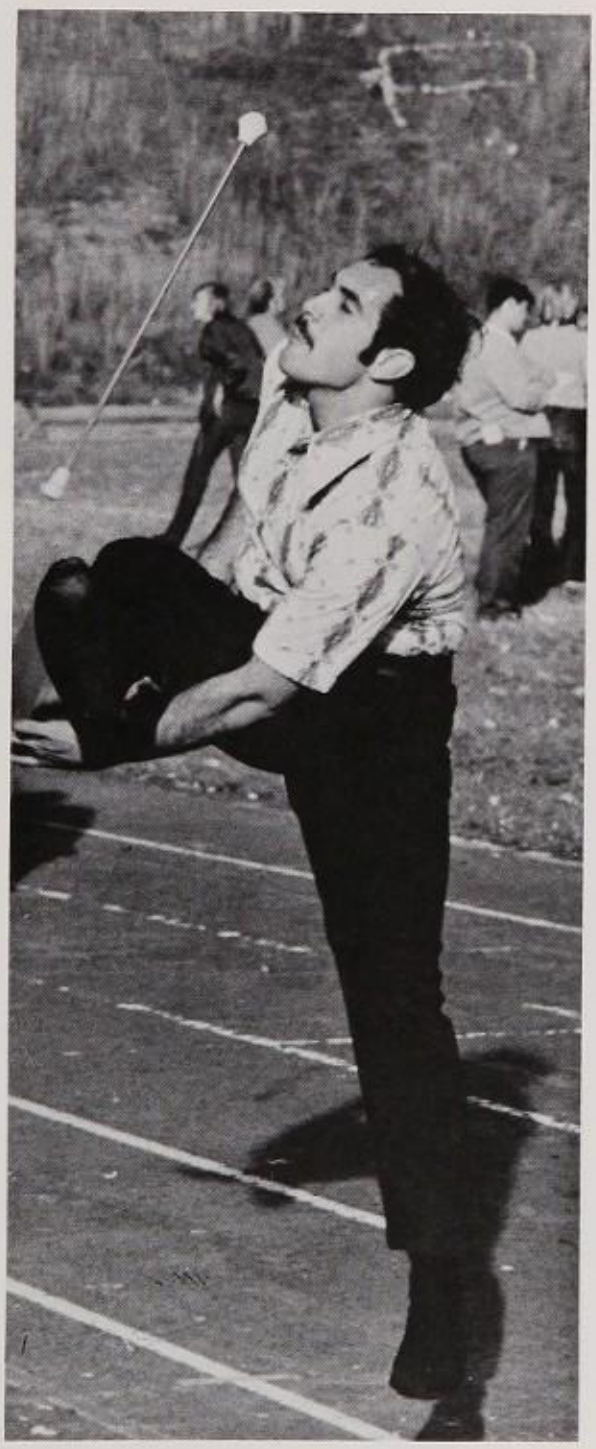
The Pom Poms atop their chef d'oeuvre.

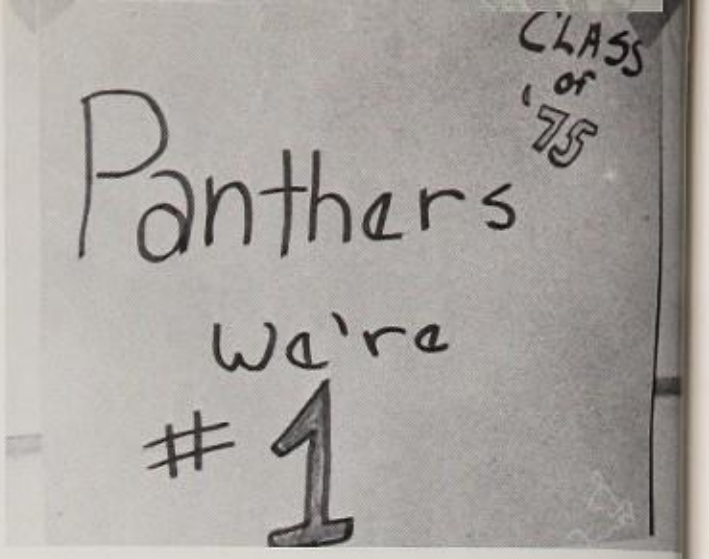


"It's all in the wrist action." — (Louis Blancato).

Jeanne Nelson, homecoming queen '73, revels in the limelight.

Dogged zeal.

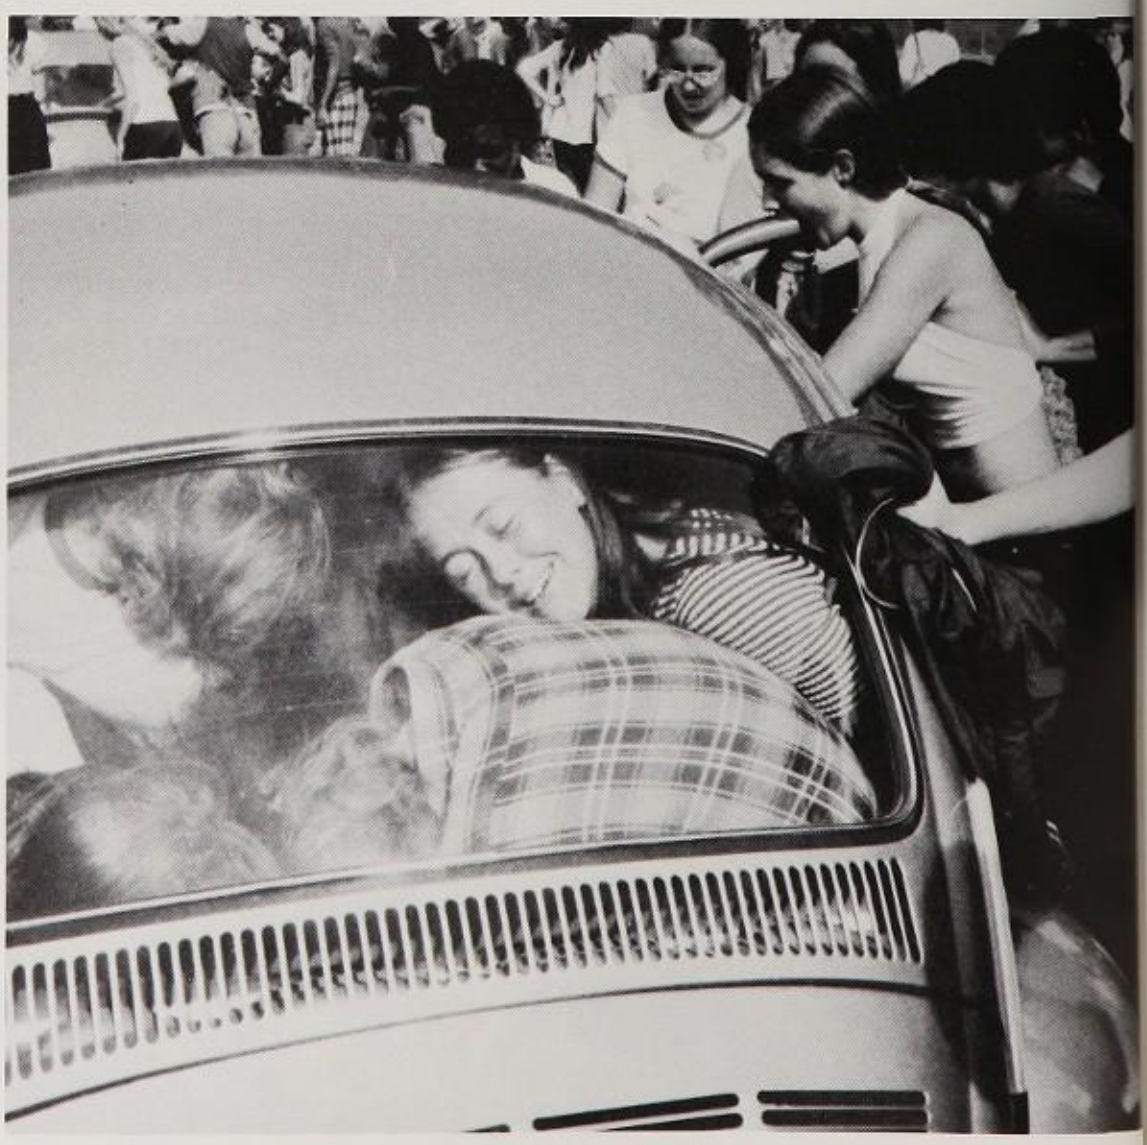
Spirit Week



Senior Class Vice-President, Elvira Kaper, adds the final touch to the senior hall.

Competitors in the pie eating contest heed Mr. Prince's final instruction in the fine art of gormandizing oneself.

The JV cheerleaders buoyantly cheer the team on to victory.



How many people can be crammed into a Volkswagen? Only the class of '75 knows for sure.

Bob Brooks and Donnie Simmons charge downfield in one of Parkdale's many successful attempts to score.

Again this year, the NHS sponsored Spirit Week. A long week of activities and competition climaxed in the football game against the High Point Eagles, with the Panthers emerging victorious. Though the Class of '76 purchased the most "PUSH" buttons, they could not rally enough to roust the invincible Class of '75 in other areas of competition.

The Pom Poms and the cheerleaders join forces to decorate the goal-posts for the big game.

The Pom Poms divert the halftime crowd's attention with their spirited performance.

Choral Concerts

Members of the Handbell Choir, Beth Gandy, Nancy Douglas and Barbi Klukowski, pay close heed to their music.

With abounding energy, Mr. Nonnemacher leads the Concert Choir through the final strains of "America, the Beautiful."

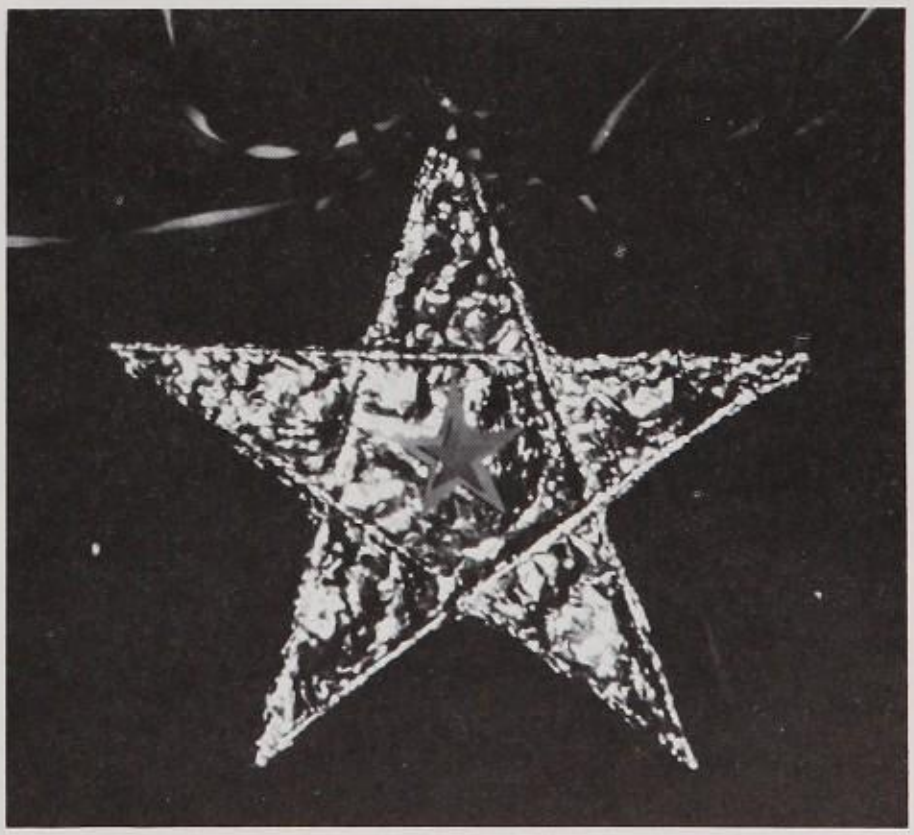
Carla Smith accompanies the Concert Choir on the pianoforte as Elvira Kaper helpfully turns pages.

In between numbers, Mr. Nonnemacher brings the house down with one of his ludicrous witticisms.

The Mixed Chorus harmoniously warbles one of their pieces.

The effeminate Choralettes sweetly intone a selection for a receptive audience.

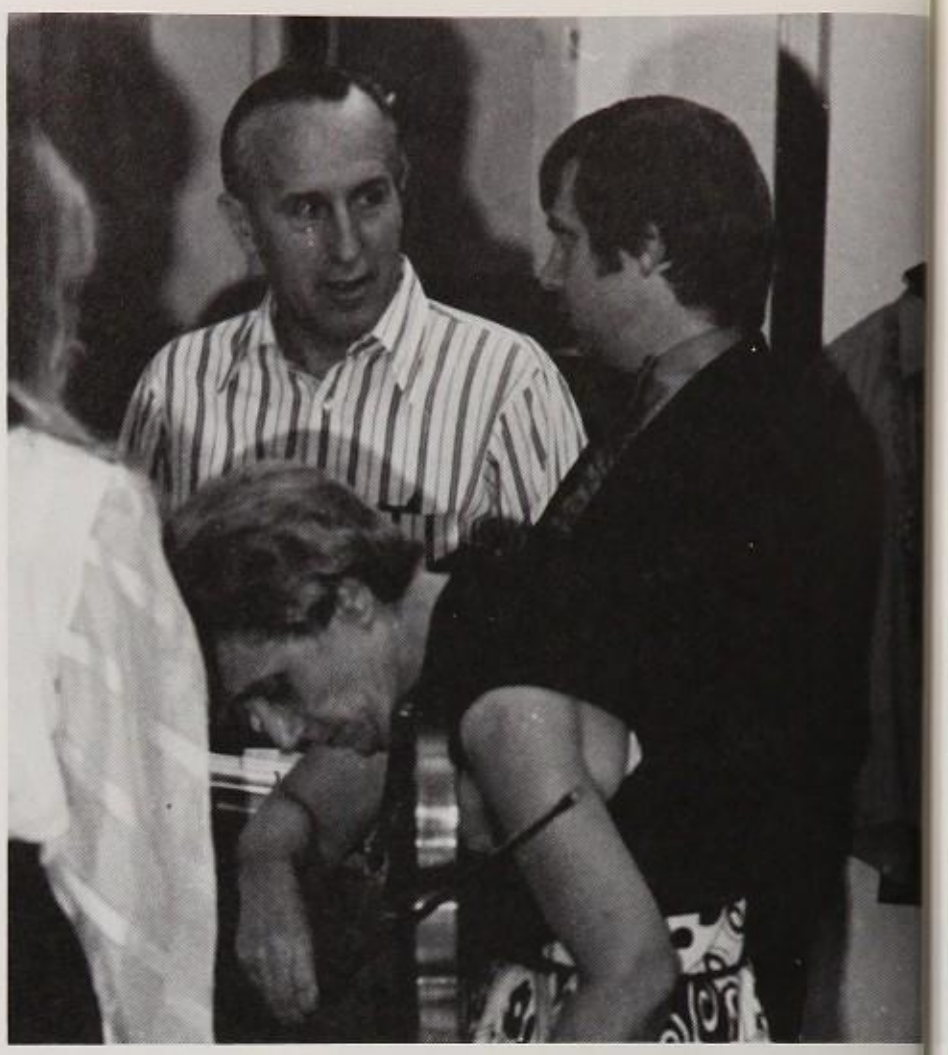
Jeannie Nelson prepares to dance her way into the hearts of millions.



Band Concerts

Like a good band member, Bob McComb makes use of his time.

Out in the audience, mother and little sister lend an ear.

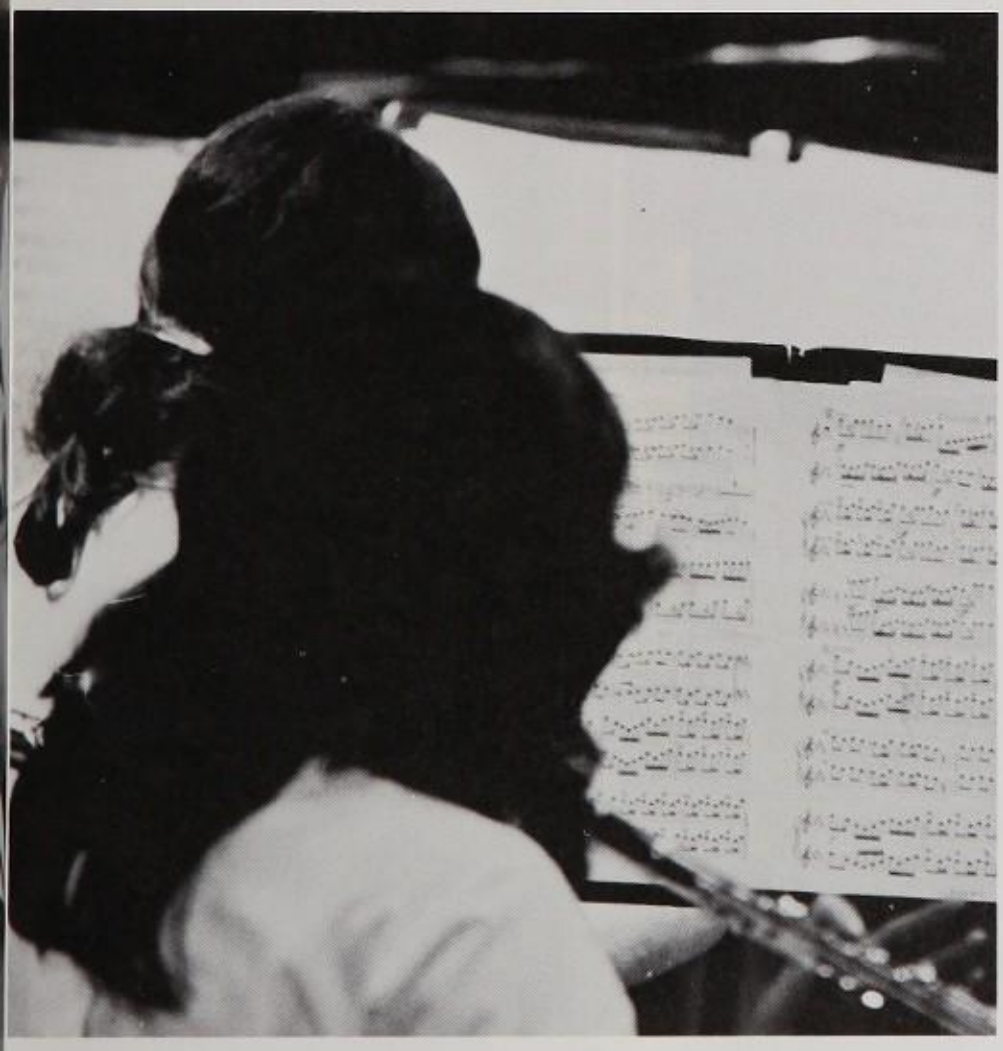


As tension mounts before performance time, Mrs. Picard helps an orchestra member tune her instrument to perfection.

Mr. Nale listens attentively as the orchestra performs.

Backstage, patient instramentalists bide their time.

Under the persevering direction of Mrs. Picard, the orchestra gives an exhilarating presentation.



Some band members take care of preliminary warm-ups while others chat with friends.

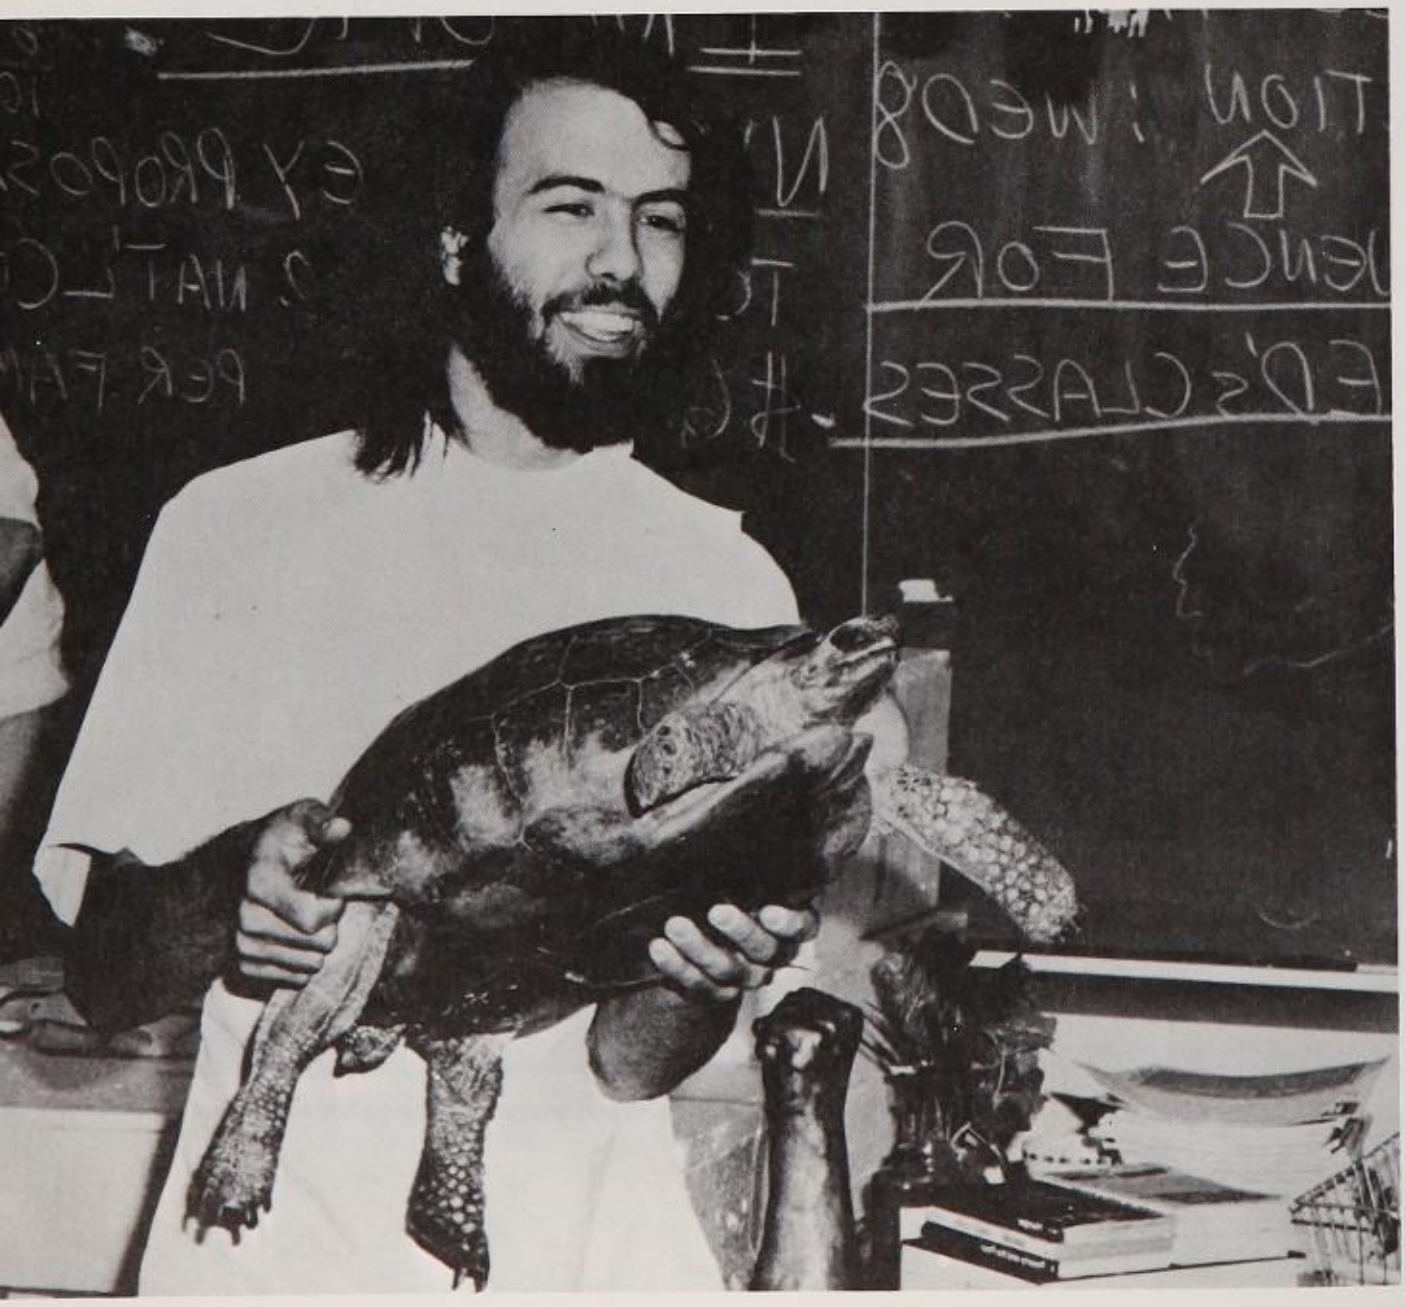
Free-Form Day

Jack Croft displays the artistic math form of the pendulart.

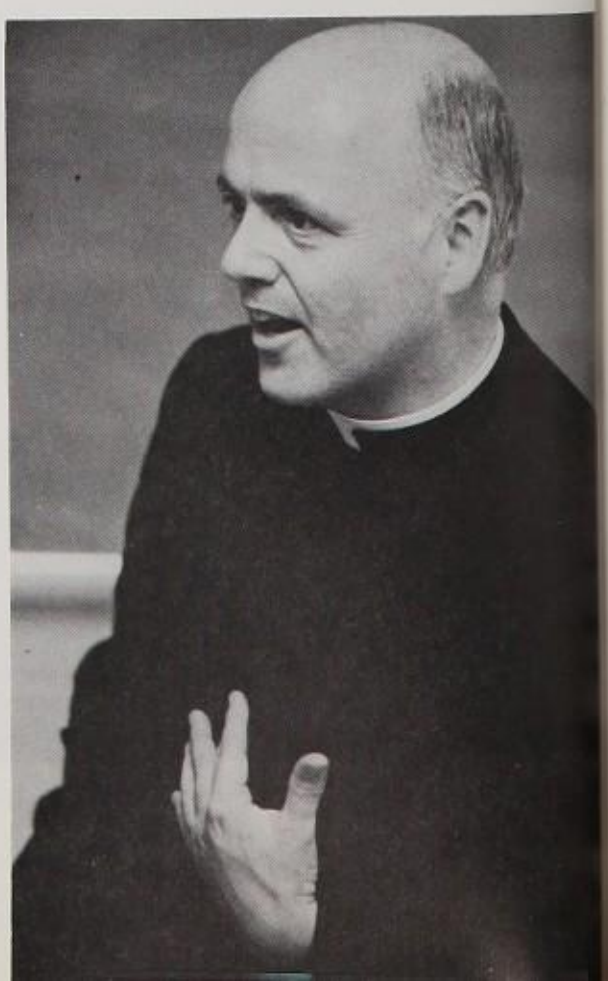
Marinell deGraffenreid tries to control "Big Bad Leroy Brown."

Sandy Smith displays her best form in terrarium making.

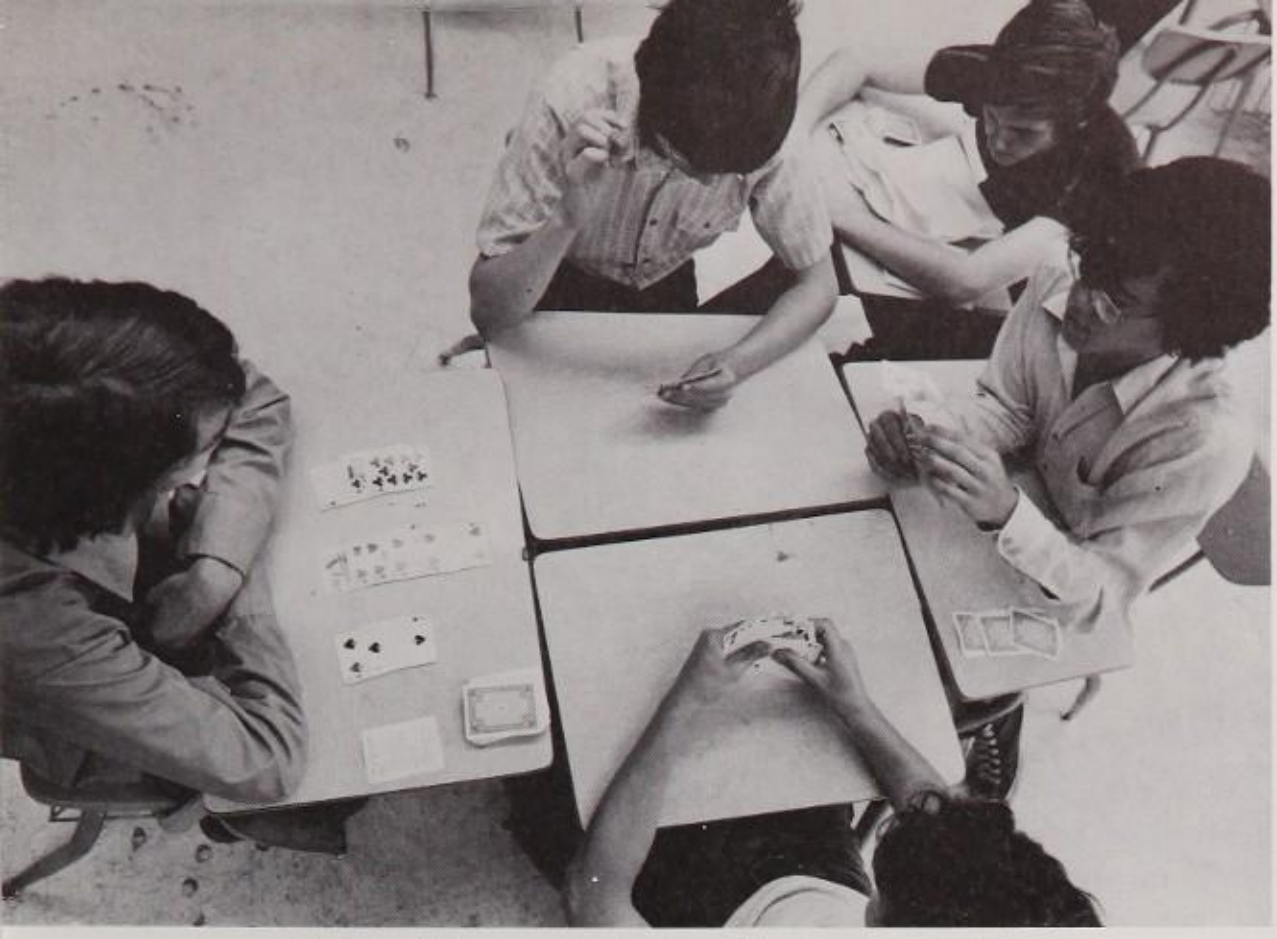
The participants in free form day are treated to the sound of Helen VanFleet, Mary Taylor, Beth Cooper and Jean Wilson, a Barber shop quartet from Bowie.



Snakeman presents the soup contents for tonight's dinner.



RIGHT: Exorcism and belief in God are not one in the same explains Father Foley.



An intense bridge game develops demanding player concentration.

"So this is what it's like to go through the change of life."

Sparky and June Russell demonstrate the proper attire for hiking.

LEFT: Bruce Nale describes the cutting of Samson's hair.

Velma DeShields tries to teach a blind friend to read cards by braille.

State Wrestling Tournament

Parkdale won the 1974 State Wrestling Tournament under the leadership of three outstanding wrestlers. Sophomore, Mike Walsh at 95 lbs., senior Bill Reagan at 112 lbs., and two time State Champ at 167 lbs., Randolf Scott. Scott finished with 45 consecutive victories. Overall the State Champ trio had a record of 74-5 during the 1973-1974 season. This was the first State Championship for coach, Dr. John McNelis who has been into wrestling for the last 31 years of his life, with 20 years, experience as a coach.

NHS Induction

Class of '75 president, Larry Noda, is congratulated by NHS president, Dave Smith.

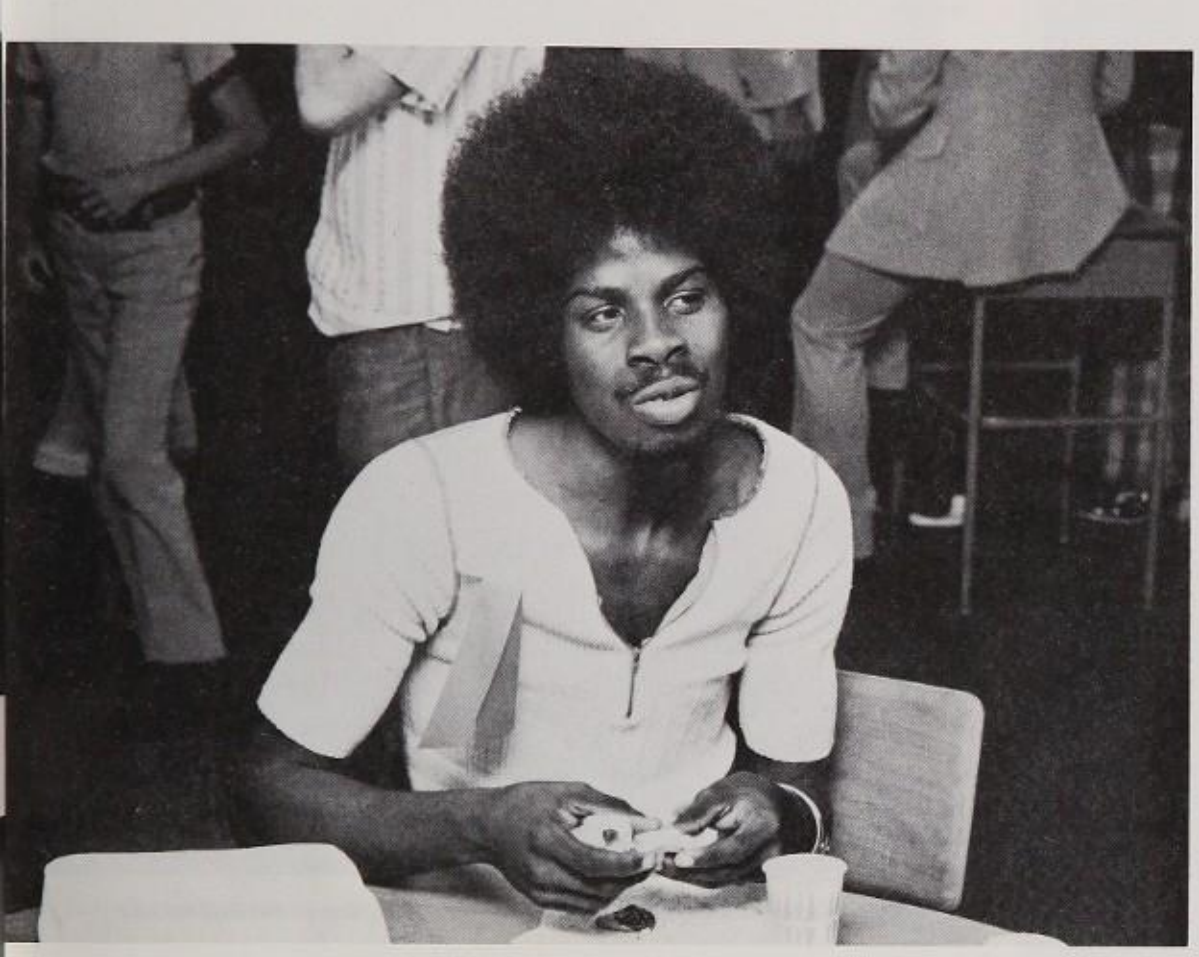
Mike Newkirk lets Bunny Sheridan feel his homemade doubleknit suit.

Dr. Sager discusses the facts of life with Peter Grambs.

A break in the NHS induction finds the Folkies entertaining the crowd with moving selections.

RIGHT: "Heaven help the mister that comes between me and my sister" — (Terri and Jeanne Nelson)

After such a lovely induction ceremony, everyone enjoys refreshments and a few laughs.



Mike Chapman savors some of FHA's delectable specialties prepared for the cream of the crop.

Maureen "Hairy" Hennessy becomes ecstatic when receiving her certificate from Trig pal Jeanne "Beano" Nelson.

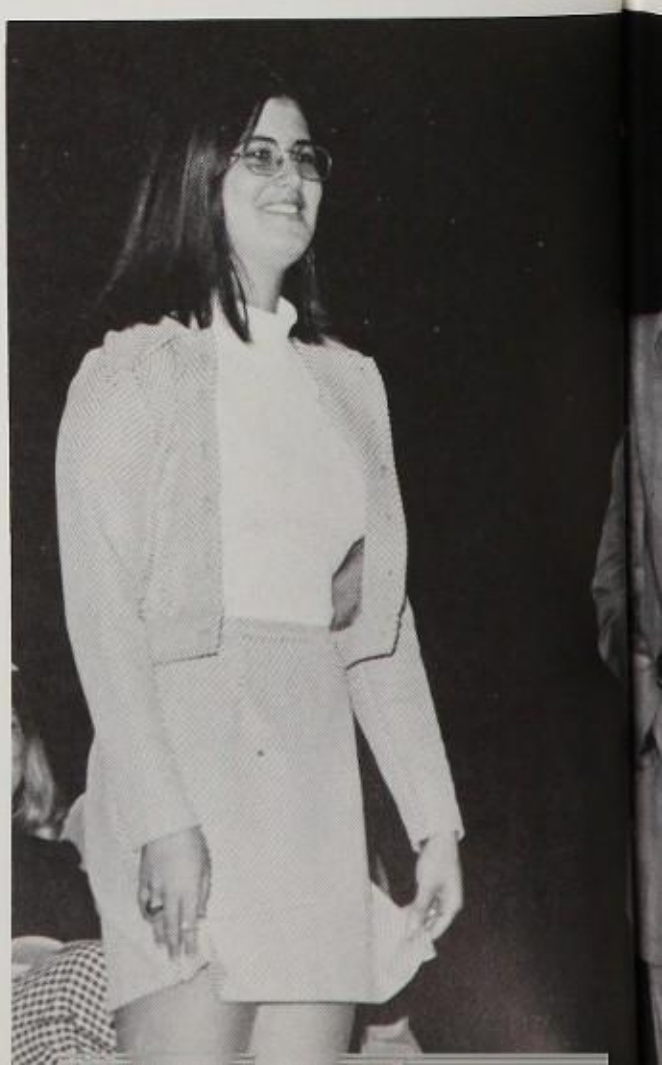
Awards Night

Mr. Harding presents Donna Moluski with the soroptomist club award.

Russell Ball receives a gift certificate for a wheelbarrow to cart away his many awards.

Gabe Sucher stoically receives an award for being an outstanding student.

The audience gives the awards recipients a well deserved round of applause.



Superintendent's award winners John Farley and Kim Statham.

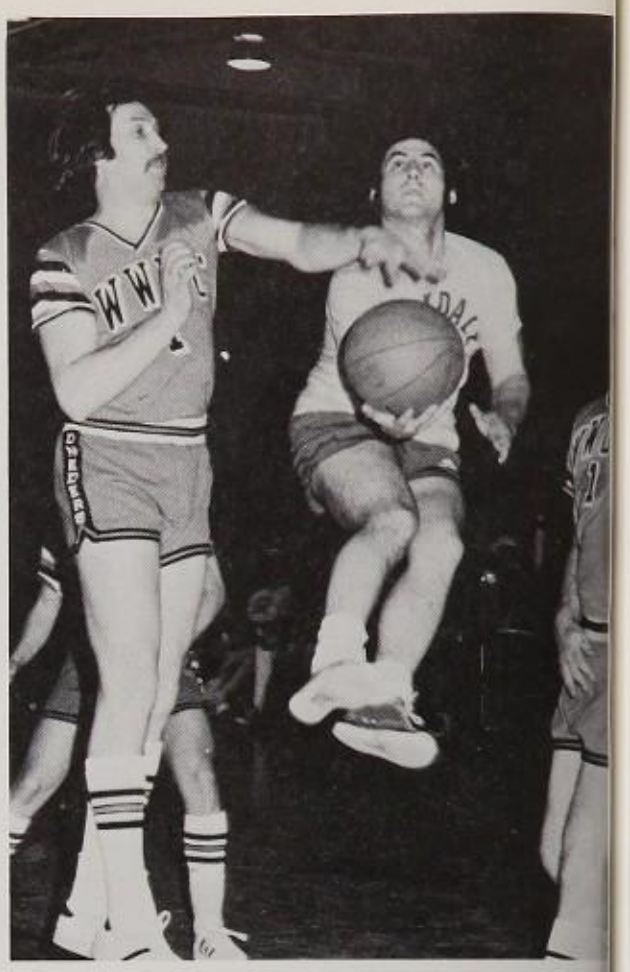
WWDC Oneders Topple Panther Faculty 74-73

Mr. Henry demonstrates the same winning form that got him his big 2 points.

Mr. Davis frantically searches for an opening in the sea of arms.



Mr. Matters flying through the air with the greatest of ease.

Stopping his guard short, Mr. Genovese scrambles to retrieve the ball.

Jr. Jim Sager shows his stuff as Mr. Catania and Mr. Matters look on.

Reverting to his primitive instincts, a WWDC Oneder takes a fancy to Kelly Morgan.

A well executed pirouette sends Mr. Matters' guard off balance.

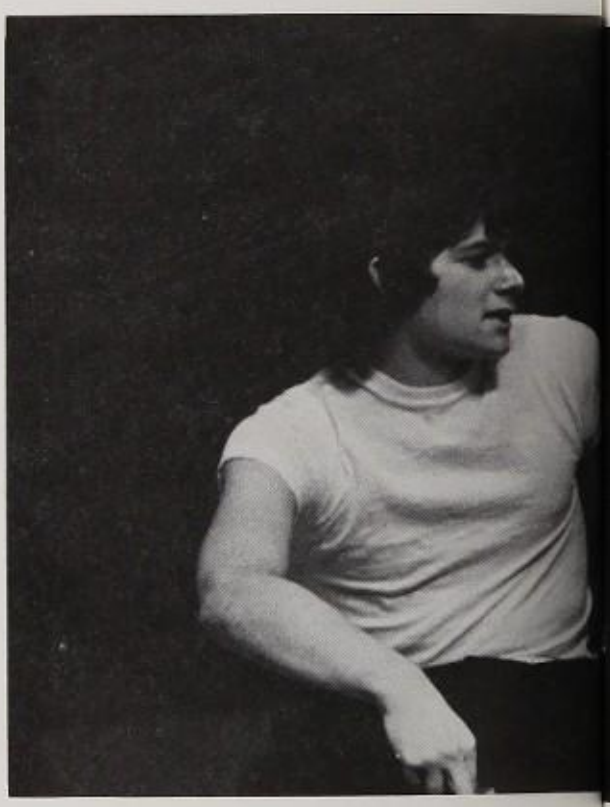
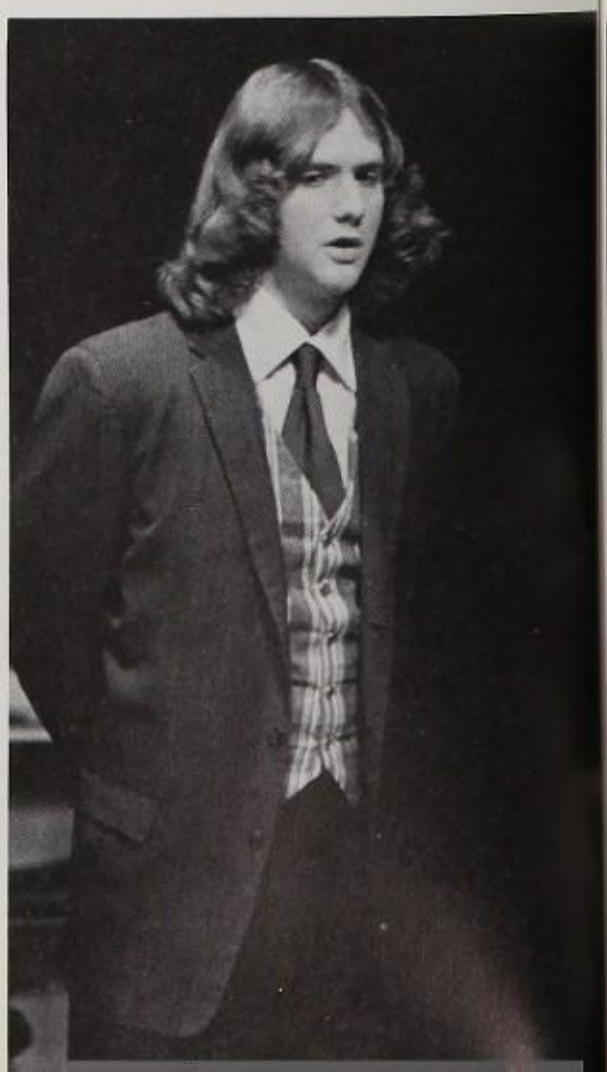
Karen Decker is pleased to learn that Steve Lerch is really 'Earnest.'

Unhand me! You cad! (Nancy Weintraub, Steve Lerch)



Sherrie Dodge is overcome by Reggie Count's eloquent ardor.

The cast from "The Importance of Being Earnest" looks on as governess, Nancy Weintraub, shamefully utters her true confessions.



RIGHT: Rick Janisch

Georgette Downs

This year, Parkdale's sixth annual play tournament was a great success. The three widely differing plays presented were: "The Importance of Being Earnest" — (first place), directed by Kathy Derry and Michelle Bassett, "Once Upon A Playground" — (second place), directed by Ted Shawe, and "Sorry Wrong Number" — (third place), directed by Diane Stein. After careful consideration, the judges named Jane Meier best actress and Steve Lerch best actor. D Kilne and Kevin Keehn were voted runners up.

Mistress of ceremonies, Allison Glasgow, introduces the first play of the evening.

An anonymous phone call strikes fear into the heart of best actress Jane Meier.

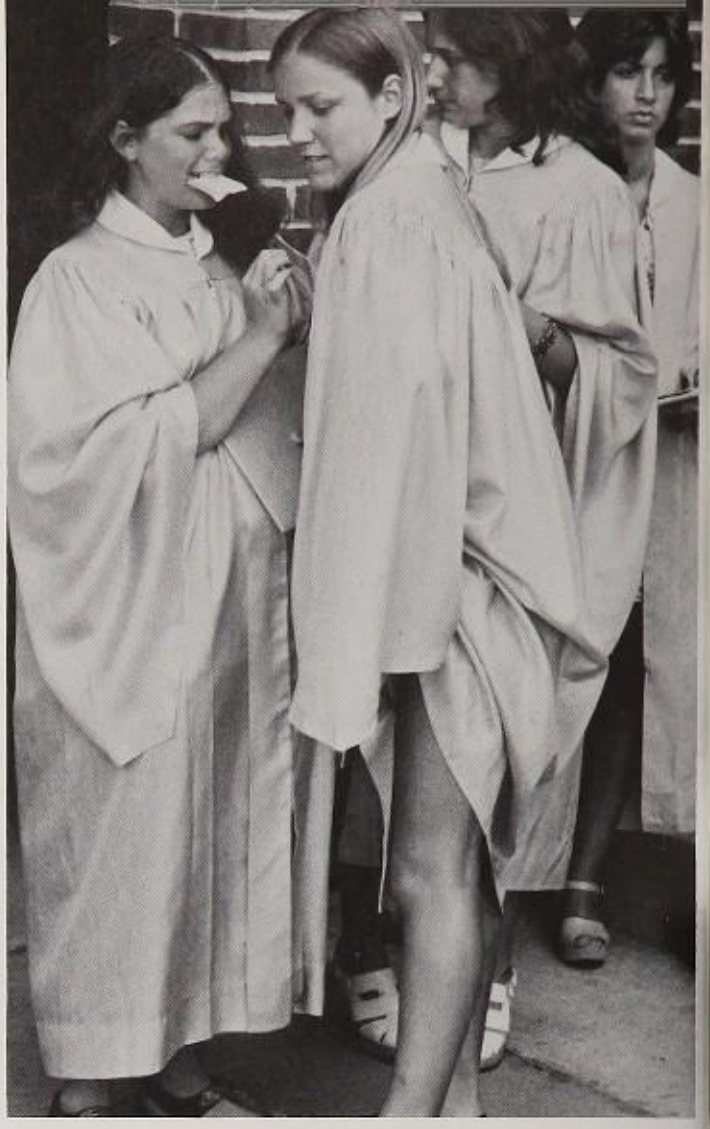
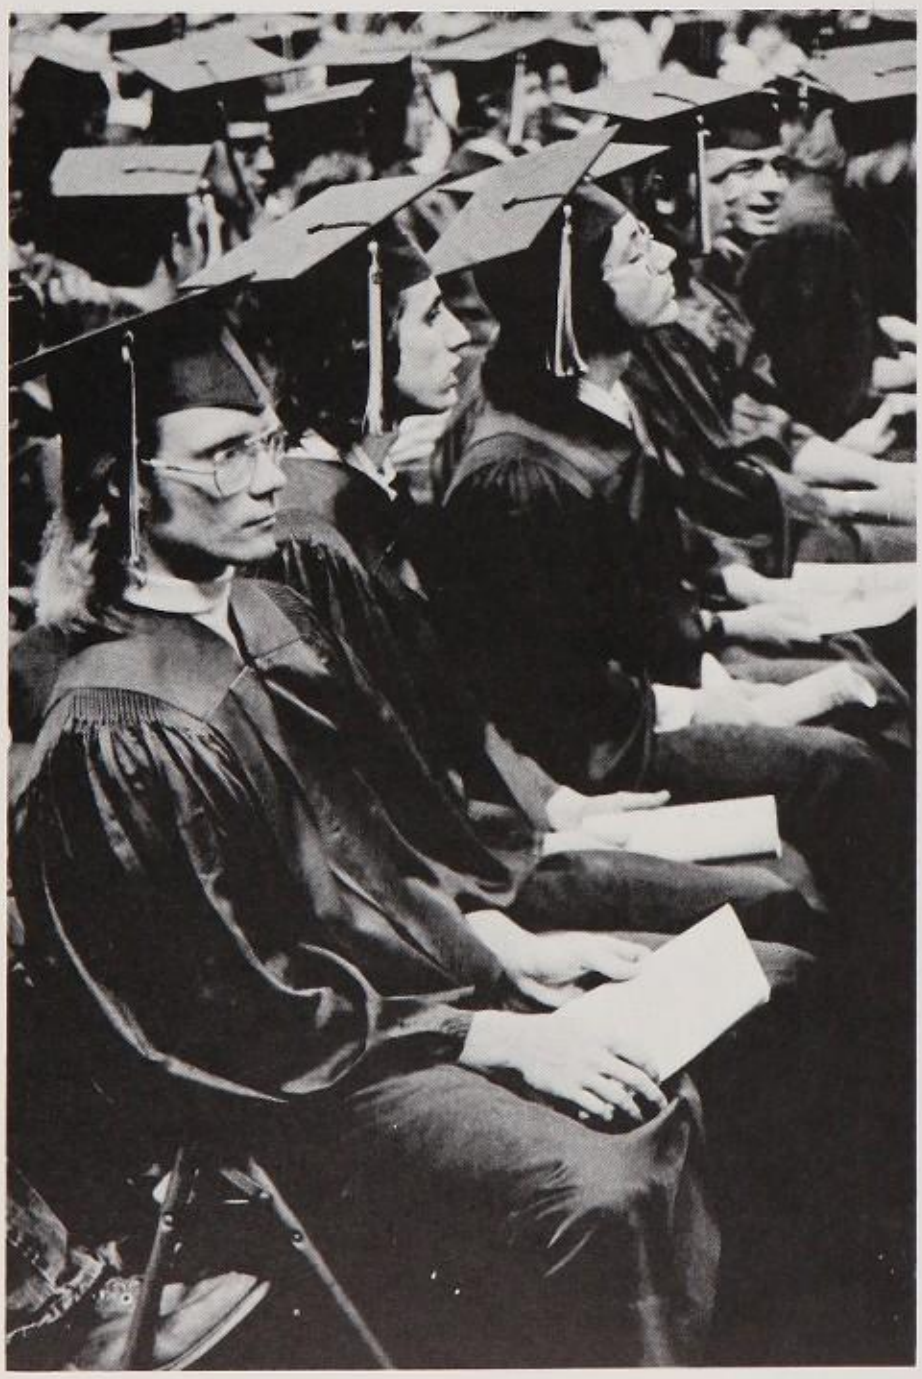
Mr. Boisvert shows the cameraman how to eat without using your hands.

Graduation — 1974

Issuing forth from Cole Field House in droves, graduating seniors go to seek their fortunes.



WHOOOSH!



The boys of the class of 1974 try to retain some shred of dignity as they wait for what seems like ages for the girls to graduate.

"Hail to thee, oh Green and Gold . . . " — Dr. Sager's lusty voice fills Cole Field House with the strains of Parkdale's Alma Mater.

After three years in Parkdale they all look alike.

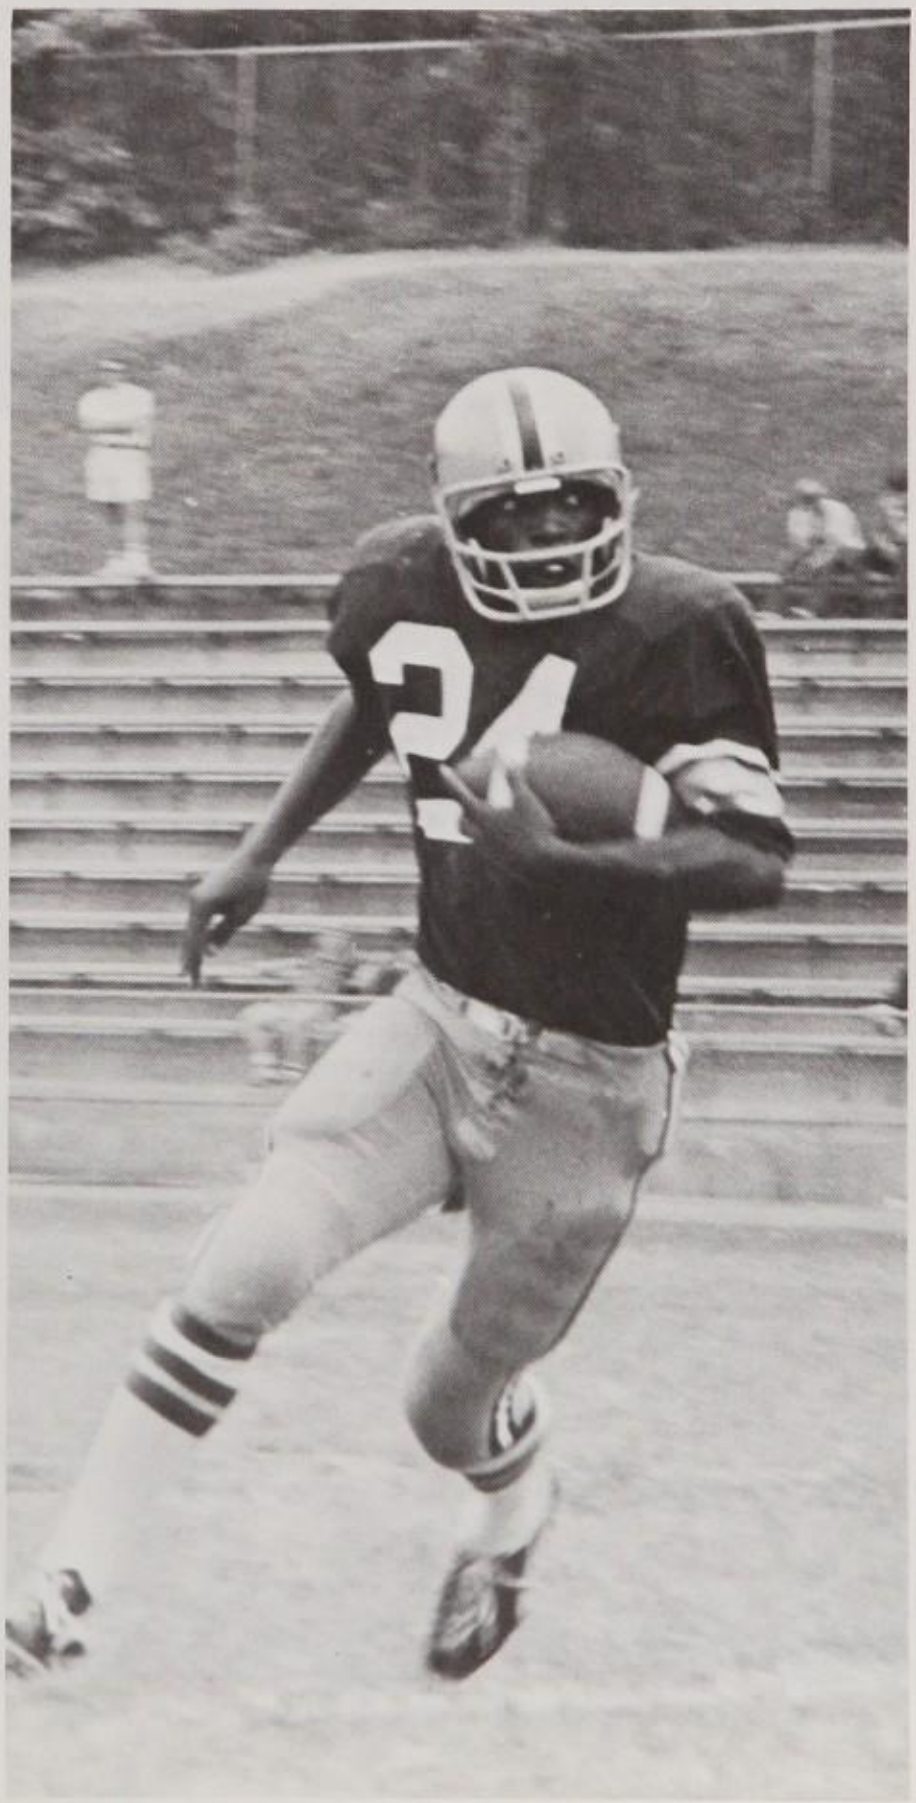
"Now if we only had a football, we'd be in great shape!"

Parkdale has always had a determined football team, and this year was no exception. From the beginning to the end of the season, the Panthers worked and played hard to meet the demands required of them. They were up against sturdy competition, but with the support of many cheering fans, the Panthers gave their all in every game they played.

Steve Stough wishes that the Panthers had already won this game.

Curt Kowalski carries out a well-executed punt.



Concerned only with winning the game, Don Simmons scans the defense for an opening.

In a hurried leap, Scott Malay tries to capture the ball.

Girls' Varsity Volleyball

Just one of the many methods of winning perfected by the team.

The Girls' Varsity Volleyball Team played hard this year, resulting in the securing of a good record. Trained under the coaching of Miss Serf, they lost only two matches; one to Laurel and one to Northwestern. In playing Central, they won one game, and lost one game. Likewise, they obtained the same outcome in matches with DuVal, Northwestern and Laurel. In games with High Point, Largo, Bladensburg, they won both times they played.

See what you can do with just one fist!!

Intramural

Basketball

Intramural Basketball proved to be a successful sport this year at Parkdale. In a well-attended game that took place in the latter part of November, two teams, the undefeated Lakeland Gang and the Goldeneers, fought for a strongly-desired victory. The result of the game was the defeat of the Goldoneers by Lakeland. The game ended with a score of 63-49.

The full use of arm and leg muscles is executed in the act of making this basket.

Watching for opposition, John Colter dribbles the ball toward his team's basket with apprehension.

Wrestling

Seniors Randolph Scott and Bill Reagan and sophomore Mike Walsh all grabbed state crowns as the Panthers captured their first state wrestling championship 42-32 over Westminster. Before starting the final round, the issue was in doubt as Parkdale clung to a precarious 31-29 lead. But Mike Walsh pinned in the second period for the 98-pound title. Reagan decisioned Laurel's Ed Meister for only the second time in his career, and Scott repeated as state champ with a pin.

Outstanding in regular season action, Scott was 13-0 with ten pins and Walsh was 11-0 with seven pins. Reagan showed an 11-2 mark and Alphonso Fields finished with a 9-2-1 slate and placed fourth at the County Tournament. Juniors Bob Brooks, Tim Ring, Alan Shropshire, and Keith Woody combined for a 35-13 record with both Brooks and Ring concluding 10-2.

Don Hresko spins his opponent over trying to escape.

BELOW: Bill Herlich.

Mr. Kovalchik.

BELOW: Get that d--- camera outta my way! — (Curt Kowalski).

"Sorry Buddy, you're out!" — (Preston Taylor).

BELOW: Having just leaped over a tall building in a single bound, Bill Herlich lands safely on base.

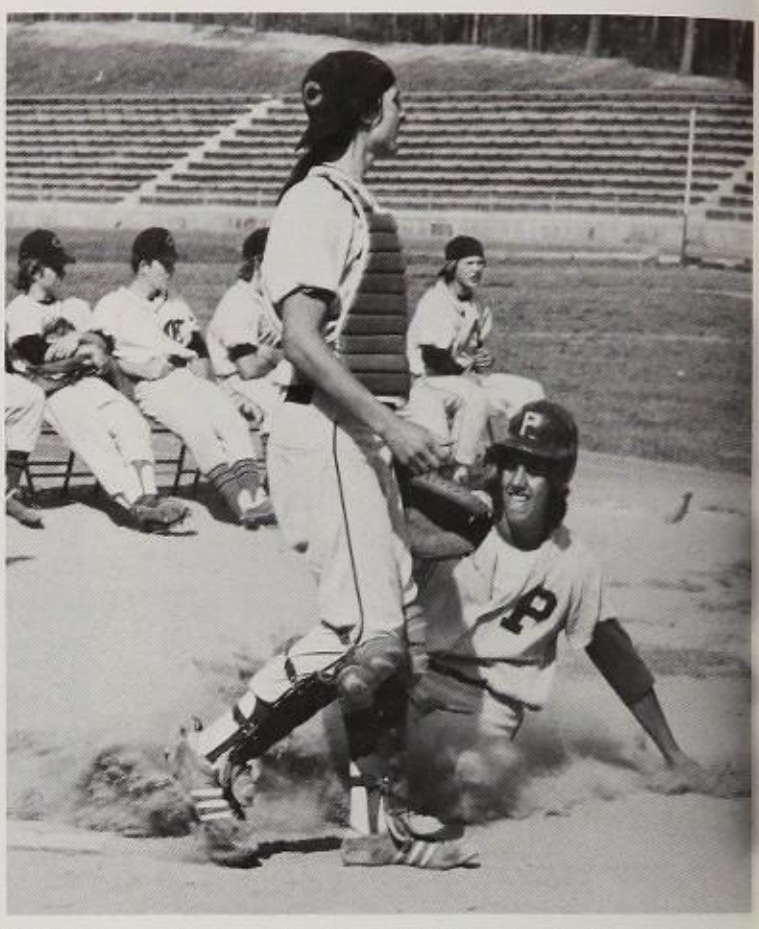
BELOW: Fearful of the base, Robbie Brooks gingerly reaches out to touch it, hoping to be safe.

JV Baseball

Pat Barton.

Mike Smith catches the ball deftly as he watches the batter strike out.



Sliding home safe, Gary Karp hopes that Crossland's pitcher doesn't decide to step on him.

Xavier Brent figures that if the catcher gives him any trouble, he'll use a little Kung Fu on the guy.

"You mean I was supposed to run around ALL the bases?" — (Pat Ryan).

Tom Hibbs.

Gary Carr.

There's no need for turning back
'cause all roads lead to where I stand,
And I believe I'll walk them all no matter what I may have planned.

. . . The sword of time will pierce our skins,
It doesn't hurt when it begins,
But as it works its way on in,
The pain grows stronger —
watch it grin.

Lost
on a painted sky
where the clouds are hung for the poet's eye
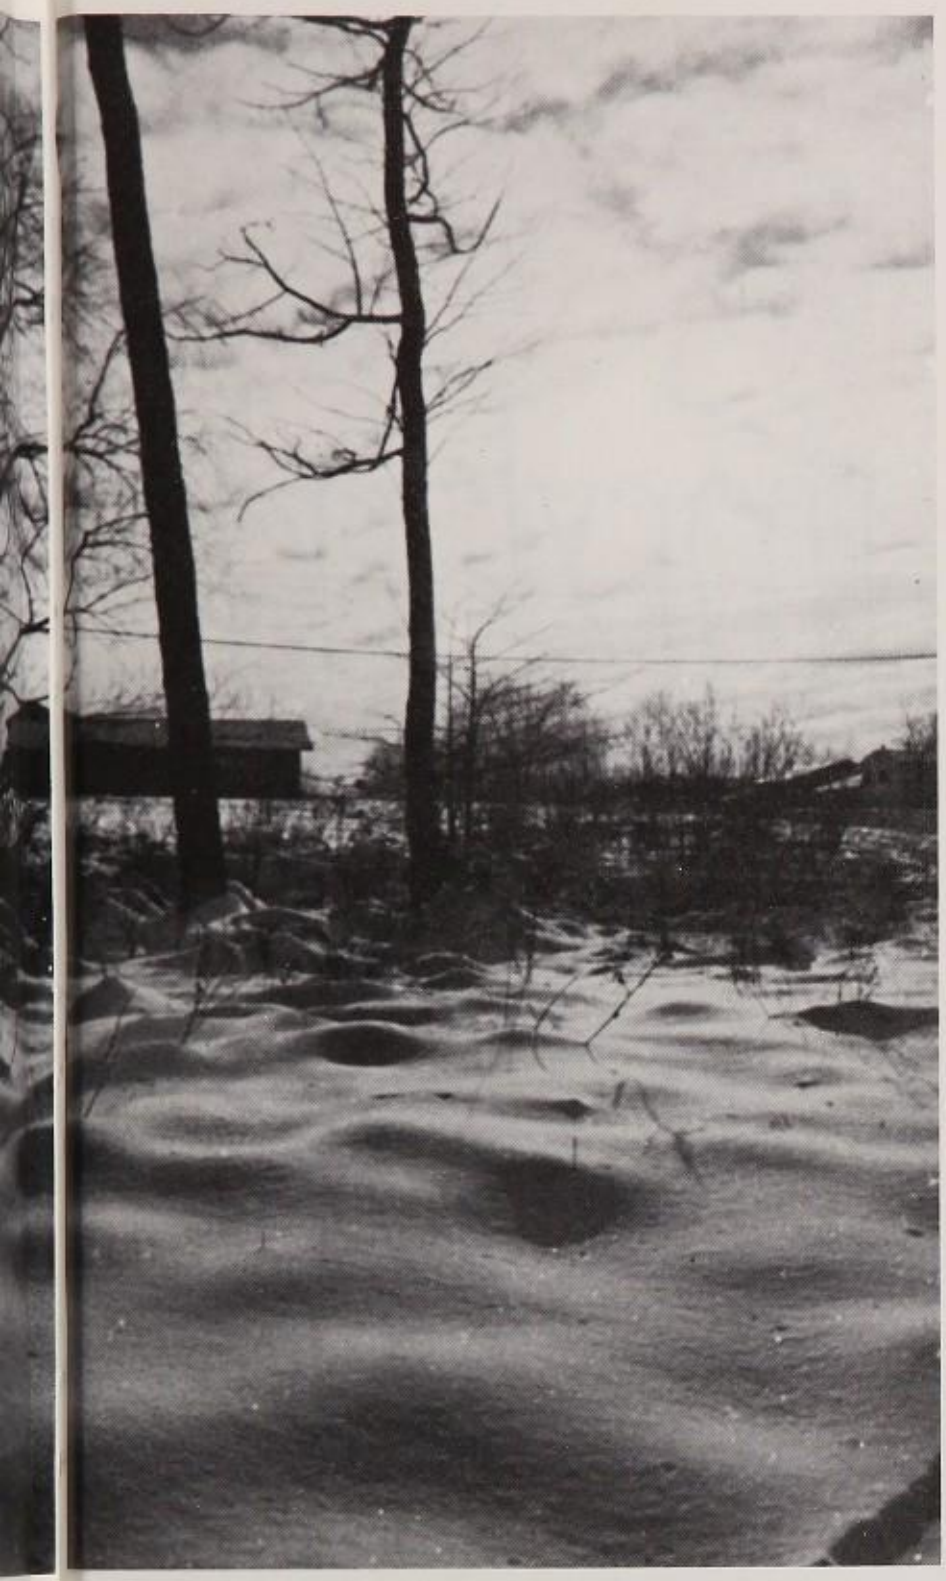
you may find him
if you may find him.



There
on a distant shore
by the wings of dreams
through an open door
you may know him
if you may.
